

2013

Crackdown

Motivational Mobile Data Terminal Messages (Fall 2013)

NHTSA is nearing completion of a new series of 30-second motivational traffic safety messages designed to remind law enforcement officers across the country to always keep their safety in mind. The messages, which can be played through a vehicle's Mobile Data Terminal (MDT) and as part of general safety education efforts, also remind officers that the work they do is appreciated.

For more information, contact Will Price at will.price@dot.gov